LINE-UP: 11 SET TO GO TO POST FOR R2-MILLION GRADE 1 RACE AT KENILWORTH

➔ Kommetdieding draws pole position for Grade 1 race.

Jack Milner

Eleven runners stood their ground at declaration stage for the R2-million Cape Town Met, presented by World Sports Betting, over 2000m at Kenilworth on Saturday 29 January.

The only runner to come out of the final field for this Grade 1 race was Fire Alley.

But the size of the field is no indication of the talent that will line up as most of the best inform horses in the country will be fighting out the finish.

With the sad retirement last week of Rainbow Bridge as the result of an injury, the race has lost the defending champion but the first two past the post in the Grade 1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate on 8 January - Jet Dark and Kommetdieding respectively - will be doing battle once again.

That race was over 1600m, and a lot will depend on whether Jet Dark will see out this 2000m. He did win the Grade 1 Champions Cup over 1800m at Greyville last year so he must come into the picture.

MET RUNNER. Linebacker will be reunited with jockey Grant van Niekerk in the R2-million Cape Town Met, presented by World Sports betting, at Kenilworth on Saturday 29 January. Picture: Gold Circle

There is no doubt Durban July winner Kommetdieding will enjoy the extra 400m so this is heading for a thrilling duel. Linebacker disappointed in the Queen's Plate when finishing out of the first three for the first time. But he is a lot better than that and will also be suited to the extra distance. He is reunited with jockey Grant van Niekerk who has ridden him five times for three wins and two places.

Add to that stalwart Do It Again, top filly Marina, Grade 1 Cape Guineas champion Double Superlative and Premier Trophy winner Hoedspruit and we are in for a great race.
