Aragosta is all at sea

FORM: DINGAANS THIRD TO HOLD SWAY IN SEA COTTAGE

» Clafoutis can give De Kock a 1-2 in feature.

Jack Milner

The form of the Grade 2 Dingaans comes under the spotlight tomorrow with the running of the Grade 3 Sea Cottage Stakes for three-year-olds over 1800m on the Turffontein Inside track.

Safe Passage, trained by Mike de Kock, won the Dingaans over 1600m on the Standside track on 30 November.

He also trained third-placed Aragosta, who was beaten 2.50 by his stable companion. Fifth in that race came Castletown, who finished a further three lengths back. Both will be lining up in the Sea Cottage Stakes and with the SA Triple Crown and Wilgerbosdrift Triple Tiara for fillies starting on Saturday 5 February, many of these runners will be looking ahead to bigger things.

In fact, nominations for the first leg – the Grade 2 World Sports Betting Gauteng Guineas and the Grade 2 Wilgerbosdrift Gauteng Fillies Guineas at Turffontein – close on Monday.

Prior to the Dingaans De Kock intimated his one concern about his runners was that 1600m could be too sharp, but added it was not the strongest of line-ups.

As a result, this 1800m should prove more suitable and, if not in need of the run, Aragosta should be the runner to beat. In his favour is that his win prior to the Dingaans was over this course and distance so we know he will have no problems with the tighter-turning course and the shorter straight.

STRONG FORM. Aragosta has the best exposed form in the Grade 3 Sea Cottage Stakes over 1800m on the Inside track at Turffontein tomorrow. Picture: JC Photographics Aragosta is narrowly the best weighted competitor and has run four times for two wins and his third in the Dingaans.

Richard Fourie is making the trip from Cape Town to ride the Rafeef gelding.

De Kock also has filly Clafoutis in the eight-horse field, and she is rated just 0.5kg behind her stable companion on the best handicapped list. She was probably a little disappointing when she could only manage a four-length fourth in the Grade 3 Fillies Mile followed by a 4.25-length fourth behind Bold Fortune in the Grade 2 Ipi Tombe Challenge.

But she did come back to form with a hard-fought victory in her next start, and as is the case with Aragosta, she is unbeaten on the Inside track, winning both times with ease.

She has yet to race over further than 1600m but on breeding, the additional 200m should suit her.

Keagan de Melo won on her last time, and he has once again been engaged for this race.

Sean Tarry sends out Platinum Sky, who has loads of potential. Tarry has so far kept him out of any feature races, and like so many of Silvano's progeny, he might just need some time to mature.

This colt has won two of his five starts and as a half-brother to top filly Princess Calla, the bloodline looks highly potent. He won his last race, which was over 1800m, so the distance will be of no concern to him.

Gavin Lerena takes the ride.

Although on paper she has little chance, the mystery package looks to be Paul Peter-trained Shining Armour. She has only raced once and totally obliterated the opposition, leading almost from start to finish and winning by 4.50 lengths.

Two winners from six runners have come out of the form line so it looks a performance loaded with merit.

The question of how good this daughter of Capetown Noir really is will be answered in this race.

It's Snaith v Smith at Fairview

Jack Milner

Once again Western Cape-based trainer Justin Snaith will be sending runners to Port Elizabeth where the Sophomore Plate over 1400m on the turf tops the card.

Maryah, with Richard Fourie up, represents his yard but the lone filly in this race for three-year-olds will face a strong local challenge, especially from Gavin Smith's trio.

Maryah was a star juvenile when under the care of Lezeanne Forbes in KwaZulu-Natal, winning twice, including the Grade 2 Debutante Stakes over 1200m at Greyville.

With Forbes moving overseas, the Querari filly found her way to Snaith Racing in the Western Cape and unfortunately for her followers, she was unplaced in both her starts at Kenilworth.

This can be seen as a recovery mission for her and hopefully she is able to regain the sort of form she displayed as a juvenile.

Smith-trained Safari Blue on the other hand has been improving nicely lately and is coming off a wide-margin win at short odds on the Poly-track.

This What A Winter gelding has won twice over the course and distance and jockey Marco van Rensburg does seem to get the best out of him. Stable companion Peace In Our World is also on a recovery mission, and hopefully an 84-day break during which he was gelded will bring about that change.

His career was started off in some style with good wins in two of his first three starts, including one over this course and distance, beating What-ever Next.

That form is solid so his connections must have been extremely disappointed with his last two performances.

He will have the aid of S'manga Khumalo in the saddle.

This winner of this race does look very likely to come out of these three runners and they should be good enough to get you through all bets.

FORECAST BETTING: 6-1 HOMER FIDGET; 7-1 DOPPIO ORO, JASPERO, RAISE THE STANDARD, MORSE, INTERSTATE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW: A tough handicap and we may need to go very wide to survive the exotics. DOPPIO ORO is in good heart at the moment but may be better on the Polytrack. Stable companions JASPERO and RAISE THE STANDARD also have winning chances over a course and distance that should suit. HOMER FIDGET may have just needed the last run and should be involved with the finish. MORSE makes his local debut for a very shrewd trainer so can be included. INTERSTATE is clearly better than his last run on the Polytrack and can go close.

PREVIEW A tough race to end the day and we will have to go as wide as possible to survive this leg of the exotics. BRASS BELL is better than recent runs suggest and will like returning to the turf. TIMKAT was touched off last time and has a winning chance. BOLD CAPTAIN showed good pace and was only caught very late last time over this course and distance. THE GHAN showed improvement last time and must be considered. EMPERORS DECREE was too far back last time and could be a surprise package. GREAT GUY has done well on the Polytrack since coming to the Eastern Cape and must be considered as well.

PREVIEW: ALADO'S PRIDE was unplaced last time but was not beaten far and was doing his best work at the finish. He has a wide draw for jockey Muzi Yeni to overcome but does have a winning chance. Trainer Gavin Smith has a strong hand with his two runners, LAST OF A LEGEND and FERRARI ICE. Both have been in good form of late and if repeating that form on turf, they would not be surprise winners. MAGNUM FIRE returns from a break but is not out of it. GREY PRINCESS did not show her best when trying the Polytrack last time. ON YOUR MARKS could pop up in a place.

FORECAST BETTING: 16-10 MARYAH; 2-1 SAFARI BLUE; 5-2 PEACE IN OUR WORLD; 10-1 IDEAL VIEW; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW: Another race where the Smith runners could dominate. SAFARI BLUE has come on nicely recently and is a strong front runner in a smallish field so will prove hard to catch. Stable companion PEACE IN OUR WORLD looked a classy sort when beating a good field in early 2021 but has not been at his best in his last few runs. He returns from a break that saw him gelded so if he has his mind on the race we could see him return to form. Filly MARYAH is clearly talented when she wants to be and trainer Justin Snaith has sent her from Cape Town to spoil the Smith party. It does seem to rest between these three as the likely winners.

FORECAST BETTING: 3-1 GREEN LIGHT GAL; 6-1 SOUND CHECK; 8-1 FLY MY FLAG, AYE AYE, FREEDOM SEEKER; 10-1 JOYFUL NOISE, KISS OF LIFE, DIVE CAPTAIN, AFTERNOON TEA; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
PREVIEW: A cracking field by Eastern Cape standards. SOUND CHECK has been putting in some impressive wins on the Polytrack recently and although now on turf, has a winning chance. FLY MY FLAG dominated a good field of sprinters when winning over this course and distance last time out. She returns from a break but deserves respect. JOYFUL NOISE is in good form and could earn some more money. STEP LIVELY returns to the turf and she could be the joker result at a price. GREEN LIGHT GAL is distance suited as well and could win.

TIMKAT was touched off last time and has a winning chance. BOLD CAPTAIN showed good pace and was only caught very late last time over this course and distance. THE GHAN showed improvement last time and must be considered. EMPERORS DECREE was too far back last time and could be a surprise package. GREAT GUY has done well on the Polytrack since coming to the Eastern Cape and must be considered as well.

Two share favouritism for G1 Cape Town Met

BETTING: DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE AND KOMMETDIEDING QUOTED AT 7-2

» Snaith confident Jet Dark will see out 2000m.

Jack Milner

Three-year-old Double Superlative has joined Kommetdieding at the top of the bookmakers' boards as favourite for the R2-million Cape Town Met, presented by World Sports Betting, over 2000m at Kenilworth on Saturday 29 January.

Double Superlative, winner of the Grade 1 Cape Guineas in December, will get weight from the entire field and has Anton Marcus in the irons. He is now quoted at 7-2 to add another Grade 1 race to his bow.

He is one of four horses from the Justin Snaith yard, the others being dual L'Ormarins Queen's Plate champion Jet Dark, Do It Again and Hoedspruit.

It is unlikely that over 2000m at Kenilworth, and with just 11 runners, the draws will play any significant role in the outcome of the Met but Kommetdieding landed pole position at Wednesday's barrier draw ceremony held at Kenilworth.

Jet Dark is now quoted at 4-1 and Snaith is adamant his charge will stay the distance. "I don't see 2000m a problem for him," said the trainer.

"For a champion racehorse the distance is elementary.

"Jet Dark sets the bar very high in the Met.

"This is the first time we have been able to give him three runs in a season. He doesn't take a lot of racing and we've been careful with him."

He also told fans of Do It Again to ignore the disappointing unplaced run last time in the Grade 2 Premier Trophy on Queen's Plate day. "He runs in and out a little bit and he did run a below-par race.

"With Bernard (Fayd'Herbe) up, if Do It Again finds the X-factor, they will all be running for second."

He added that Do It Again is the soundest horse he has ever trained.

Marina is the only filly in the race and trainer Candice Bass-Robinson said her charge was very well. "She took a while to get going in the Majorca Stakes and this 2000m is a better distance for her.

"She's not without a chance."

Six-day ban for Moreira

Star Brazilian jockey Joao Moreira will miss two Group 1 races next month after being hit with a six-meeting suspension for his effort aboard Zone D at Happy Valley on Wednesday night.

The Magic Man pleaded guilty to failing to ride Zone D out to the end of the race to the satisfaction of stewards after partnering the John Size-trained galloper into fourth as the $2.2 favourite in the Class Three Lamma Island Handicap (1650m).

After positioning Zone D one-off the rail just behind midfield from barrier four, Moreira elected to slot back onto the fence around 750m from home and was shuffled back to second-last in the process.

Moreira pulled Zone D back off the rail cornering for home but faced a wall of horses before a gap presented and the galloper ran on solidly under limited urgings.

"When questioned regarding his riding of Zone D, particularly after the 1000m, J Moreira stated that approaching the 900m he was following Meaningful Star, which at this time was racing to the outside of Sacred Ibis," the report reads.

"He said after the 900m Meaningful Star commenced to lose ground when racing behind Ready Player One and he had the option of shifting either to the inside or the outside of Meaningful Star rather than continue to lose ground behind that horse.

"He said as he was aware that Helene Wisdom Star was commencing to improve its position to the outside of the heels of Zone D, he felt that to shift Zone D to the outside of Meaningful Star would likely result in interference to Helene Wisdom Star and therefore he made the decision to shift to the inside of Meaningful Star and improved to race behind Sacred Ibis.

Paul O'Sullivan and Karis Teetan bring up 500 Hong Kong winners in the same race at Happy Valley

"He said because of the circumstances of the race rounding the home turn and in the early part of the straight, Zone D was not able to obtain clear running and after the 300m was shifted to the outside of Conqueror.

"He said he was able to then commence riding Zone D along and after the 150m was shifted to the outside of Everyone's Delight to improve into tight running between that horse and Meaningful Star."

Moreira's suspension begins on 6 February and he will miss the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup and Hong Kong Gold Cup on 20 February.

The 38-year-old, who currently holds a 12-win lead over Zac Purton in the jockeys' championship after a treble on Wednesday night, will return for the Classic Cup meeting on February 27 at Sha Tin. - South China Morning Post

De Melo the master at Kenilworth

Jack Milner

Excitement is building up in the Cape ahead of next Saturday's R2-million Cape Town Met, presented by World Sports Betting, with three other Grade 1 races on the card.

However, it's back to more mundane stuff on Sunday when Kenilworth stages a competitive card with a number of unraced horses lining up in the early races.

There are some well-bred runners in the mix so watch them carefully as there could be some future champions in action on this eight-race card.

There are some positive comments coming from many trainers so keep an eye on the betting for any significant betting moves.

It is not easy to find bankers on this card but it could be worth weighing in with Keagan de Melo and Dean Kannemeyer in Race 8, a MR 76 Handicap over 1600m, where they team up with Mr Master Starter.

This three-year-old son of Master Of My Fate started of his career with two successive victories and followed up with another two decent efforts, both over 1600m.

His penultimate start saw him produce a good finish to run on into a 2.80-length fourth behind Pacaya, a horse Justin Snaith thought good enough to contest the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate.

Mr Mater Blaster next ran in the Grade 1 Cape Guineas but suffered massive interference and never got into the race.

He takes a massive drop in class and if one draws a line through his last run, he could take a power of beating in this company.

She's My Captain could provide value for runners in Race 4, a Maiden Plate for fillies and mares over 1200m. She has run fourth, third and finished second twice in her last four starts and a return to 1200m should suit her as she was slightly disappointing over 1000m last time.

Richard Fourie takes the ride for the first time on this filly, who is trained by father and daughter partnership of Harold Crawford and Michelle Rix.

PREVIEW ■ AULD MUG represents a formidable trainer-work rider combination. He improved his finishing position but was well beaten over 1400m last time and should enjoy reverting to this distance, so with further progress could fight out the finish. GUY ALEXANDER finished behind that rival on debut but could get closer with that experience under the belt and natural improvement expected. Filly RED KITE gets weight from her male rivals. She has the form and experience to contest the finish. PHEdra showed signs of a return to form last time and could confirm. RUN RUDOLPH RUN needn't be special to feature.

PREVIEW ■ Well-bred FOLLOW THE STAR enjoys the long run-in. She also boasts consistent form at a higher level, so could prove hard to beat dropped back into this class. Stablemate and last-start winner OFFICIAL SECRET has improved for the step up to this trip and is likely to pose a threat if making further progress under a 7-point penalty. FYNBOS was too far out of her ground (wide draw) to make an impression in a Listed race last time but should fare better drawn in this grade from pole position. Both SONG and FRENCH DECLARATION are capable of making their presence felt too. Good race!

PREVIEW ■ A case can be made for each of these. SILVER SABRE was a close-up third in a similar contest last time and is likely to give another good effort - contender. BALLROOM BLISS and SYMPHONY OF LIGHT are held on that form but should get closer. The former is better off at the weights on these terms while the latter should strip fitter, having possible been in need of that latest outing. Well-bred DANCETILDAYLIGHT was outprinted in a 1200m feature when last seen but will enjoy a return to this distance - one to beat. LONG WHITE CLOUD is progressive and could pose a threat too. Good race!

PREVIEW ■ Tricky. MR MASTER STARTER never got into the hunt in the Grade 1 Guineas over track and trip but will appreciate this step drop in class so, on earlier form, rates the one to beat. Last-start maiden winners MILLAHUE and SECRET OASIS are on the up and have improved with blinkers, so could well pose a threat with the headgear retained. Improving BLIZZARD is another on handicap debut after a last-start success over course and distance. He too should make his presence felt in receipt of weight from those rivals. TICKET TO RIDE and GEM KING are others to consider in an open contest.

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 14:50 Winter Million Mares' Novices' Hurdle.

BETTING: 15-8 RAINYDAY WOMAN; 10-3 NURSE SUSAN; 7-2 LOVE ENVOI; 6-1 GAME ON FOR GLORY; 7-1 MAYHEM MYA; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 3 RAINYDAY WOMAN 2 NURSE SUSAN 1 LOVE ENVOI. PREVIEW: A competitive race to kick off the card and the unbeaten NURSE SUSAN makes an excellent case, having created a good impression when scoring on her hurdling debut at Leicester last month.

2 15:20 WINTER MILLION EBF MARES' NOVICES' HANDICAP CHASE (GBB RACE) ((5 years and older)) Turf R889,324 4000m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 15:20 Winter Million EBF Mares' Novices' Handicap Chase.

BETTING: 4-1 BELLE DE MANECH; 5-1 DEJA VUE, TIMELESS BEAUTY; 11-2 WOULDUBEWELL; 7-1 LEGENDS RYDE, CROSSGALESFAMEGAME, FONTAINE COLLONGES; 8-1 PURE BLISS. TIPS: 4 BELLE DE MANECH 1 DEJA VUE 7 FONTAINE COLLONGES. PREVIEW: Belle De Manech could never get seriously involved when dropped to 2m at Wincanton last time and looks set for a bold showing now moving back up in trip. However, the six-year-old may have to settle for minor honours behind DEJA VUE, who impressed when winning at Exeter on her reappearance last month.

3 15:50 RACEHORSELOTTO.COM HANDICAP CHASE (GBB RACE) ((5 years and older)) Turf R973,160 3200m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 15:40 Mansionbet Beaten by a Head Handicap.

BETTING: 7-4 DUBAI EMPEROR; 7-2 MAHARASHTRA; 6-1 HART FELL; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 1 DUBAI EMPEROR 5 MAHARASHTRA 2 HART FELL. PREVIEW: DUBAI EMPEROR seemed to have plenty left in reserve when scoring at Chelmsford last week and he looks to have been found an ideal opportunity to follow up, despite having to carry a 5lb penalty.

4 15:40 MANSIONBET BEATEN BY A HEAD HANDICAP (DIV 1) ((4 years and older)) All Weather R114,714 1600m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 15:40 Mansionbet Beaten by a Head Handicap (Div 1).

BETTING: 3-1 DYNAKITE; 4-1 TREVIE FOUNTAIN; 5-1 STAND FREE; 6-1 AL QAASIM; 8-1 TOO SHY SHY; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 1 DYNAKITE 9 TREVIE FOUNTAIN 10 STAND FREE. PREVIEW: DYNAKITE looked one to follow when getting off the mark at Kempton on his latest start, showing a smart acceleration to lead before just being pushed out close home.

5 16:15 MANSIONBET BEATEN BY A HEAD HANDICAP (DIV 2) - JACKPOT - LEG 1 ((4 years and older)) All Weather R114,714 1600m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 16:15 Mansionbet Beaten by a Head Handicap (Div 2) - Jackpot - Leg 1.

BETTING: 4-1 MAKAMBE; 9-2 BACK FROM DUBAI; 5-1 AVAILABLE ANGEL; 6-1 MOSTALLIM, INEXPLICABLE; 8-1 THE FIRST HURRAH, AMELIA R; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 2 MAKAMBE 8 AVAILABLE ANGEL 5 INEXPLICABLE. PREVIEW: Back From Dubai has completed a quickfire C&D double and warrants respect if turning out again after Wednesday's win, but MAKAMBE may prove to be the best option, having run well when second behind a progressive rival over C&D on his penultimate start.

6 16:50 MANSIONBET PROUD PARTNERS OF THE AWC HANDICAP ((4 years and older)) All Weather R134,482 1400m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 16:50 Mansionbet Proud Partners of the AWC Handicap.

4 16:25 CAZOO HURDLE (GBB RACE) ((5 years and older)) Turf R973,160 4600m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 16:25 Cazoo Hurdle (GBB Race).

BETTING: 13-8 ON THE BLIND SIDE; 9-4 CALVA D'AUGE; 3-1 EMITOM; 6-1 TOP VILLE BEN; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 4 ON THE BLIND SIDE 3 EMITOM 5 TOP VILLE BEN. PREVIEW: All of these have some sort of question to answer but the marginal preference is for ON THE BLIND SIDE, who has disappointed on his last couple of starts. That said, he is arguably the one to bet based on his second-placed finish in the Long Distance Hurdle at Newbury in November and he should have no problem handling the ground.

5 17:00 WEATHERBYS NHSTALLIONS.CO.UK NOVICES' CHASE (GBB RACE) ((5 years and older)) Turf R973,160 4700m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 17:00 Weatherbys NHSTALLIONS.CO.UK Novices' Chase.

BETTING: 11-4 BROKEN HALO; 7-2 FANTASTIKAS; 5-1 MIDNIGHT RIVER, QUEENOHEARTS; 6-1 HOLD THAT TAUGHT; 8-1 COLONIAL DREAMS; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 1 BROKEN HALO 3 FANTASTIKAS 4 HOLD THAT TAUGHT. PREVIEW: BROKEN HALO confirmed the promise that he displayed on his chasing debut by winning easily at Exeter at the beginning of the month.

6 17:35 SOVEREIGN HANDICAP HURDLE (GBB RACE) ((4 years and older)) Turf R1,946,319 3200m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 17:35 Sovereign Handicap Hurdle (GBB Race).

PREVIEW: A tricky puzzle to solve and it might be worth chancing HARBOUR VISION, who has faced stronger competition than this in recent starts and may prove even sharper with the cheekpieces back on.

7 17:25 BETWAY HANDICAP ((4 years and older)) All Weather R188,826 1200m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 17:25 Betway Handicap.

BETTING: 11-4 INEVITABLE OUTCOME; 10-3 KRATOS; 4-1 TIPPERARY TIGER; 9-2 AIRSHOW; 7-1 ALJARI; 10-1 PALIFICO; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 6 INEVITABLE OUTCOME 2 TIPPERARY TIGER 1 AIRSHOW. PREVIEW: INEVITABLE OUTCOME won nicely over this trip at Wolverhampton two weeks ago and that form took a massive boost when the third came out and won impressively at the same venue three days later.

8 17:55 PLAY CORAL RACING-SUPER-SERIES FOR FREE HANDICAP ((3 years only)) All Weather R114,714 1200m

Table with 4 columns: Race number, Name, Trainer, Odds, and other details for the 17:55 Play Coral Racing-Super-Series for Free Handicap.

BETTING: 4-1 ARLECCHINO'S GIFT; 7-2 BANG ON THE BELL; 4-1 ARKID; 5-1 SALTA RESTA; 10-1 MALORIE; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. TIPS: 3 ARLECCHINO'S GIFT 1 BANG ON THE BELL 6 ARKID. PREVIEW: ARLECCHINO'S GIFT won gamely on his first start as a gelding at Lingfield earlier this month and that form looks fairly solid with the second (first), fourth (second) and fifth (first) having all run well since. Entitled to improve for that first run since late August, Mark Usher's gelding could well follow up off a 3lb higher mark.

PREVIEW Tricky opener, SYBARIS came back after a long break and showed true form. She should make her presence felt. HALLOWEEN drops in distance and if settees could flash up despite a wide draw. Similarly, recent maiden winner CORAL DAWN could overcome a wide draw and get into the reckoning. FULL ROYALTY won on the 2nd time of asking and could come on heaps. PREVIEW The form of the previous race will show how strong BON VIVANT rates in this. Despite 0.5kg over-weight she could go in again. ELUSIVE CURRENT is having her peak run and could feature. Stable companion HAWKER TYPHOON races in new surroundings and a 4kg claim could see her get into the shake-up. ADMIRE ME has been sparingly raced but has ability and must be respected. ALL OF ME could get into the Quartet.

PREVIEW The SEA COTTAGE STAKES (Grade 3) over 1800m looks ready made for Mike De Kock-trained ARAGOSTA. He has matured and finished a good third in the Dingaans. However, he should expect serious challenges from stable companion, filly CLAFOUTIS, as well as PLATINUM SKY who is on the up. Other filly SHINING ARMOUR won easily on debut and the form has been franked. Stablemate LITTLE PRINCE as well as CASTLETOWN are looking for minor money. LEADER. Work rider Phenisile Mongqawa, pictured winning Race 4 on Corapi at the Vaal yesterday, held his lead at the top of the table after the second leg of the Work Riders' Challenge. Although it was Sam Mosia who topped the second leg on 30 points, Mongqawa, who was just two points back in second place, has an accumulated total of 72 which gives him a six-point advantage over Mosia going into the third and final leg. Katak ready to get off the mark at Kranji

By Luke Middlebrook

Katak looks set to score his first win at Kranji on Saturday 22 January when he contests Race 10, the highest-rated race on the card, a quality 1400m Class 2 event.

Formerly trained by Cape Town-based Piet Steyn, this Highlands Farms bred five-year-old arrived in Singapore a highly spoken about galloper after going unbeaten in five starts at Kenilworth, including a trio of Grade 3 events.

South African born Ricardo le Grange, who celebrates 21 years in Singapore this year, has taken over the reins from Steyn.

Katak has not found the move to the East easy, with two no-shows in his first two Kranji starts.

However, he turned in a big third-up run when narrowly beaten into second in the Group 1 QEII Cup over 1800m before finishing a luckless fourth in the Group 1 Singapore Gold Cup over 2000m last time out. On that occasion, he was held up from the 500m to the 400m but made up good ground late to finish two lengths off Lim's Lightning.

Resuming off a 69-day break, Katak has taken out a recent trial in emphatic fashion, and with top jockey Danny Beasley jumping in the saddle, he is primed to break through.

Earlier on the card, trainer Michael Clements' new acquisition Bounty Rainbows looks ideally placed to score a debut win in Race 2, a (R800,000) Restricted Maiden race over 1200m on turf.

Bounty Rainbows has displayed above average ability at the trials and, naturally, seems well-educated.

This colt meets a moderate maiden field where the only danger seems to be his stablemate Alqantur, who has trialled well in both Singapore and New Zealand.

Meanwhile, trainer Timothy Fitzsimmons (five wins) leads Daniel Meagher and Shane Baertschiger by one win so far for the 2022 season.

Red-hot Manoel Nunes (six wins) has a one-win lead over Oscar Chavez. Nunes is striking at a high 33.33% so far this term, while Chavez is far from disgraced striking at 19.23%.

Danny Beasley and Rizuan Shafiq are hot on their heels with four wins apiece, with the former striking at 21% and the latter at 23.52%. - iRACE

TIPS 8 DECEPTION 6 BOUNTY RAINBOWS 2 BINGO MASTER 5 ALQANTUR

PREVIEW 1st Pick: DECEPTION (8) Was well supported last start and caught the eye running home in the fastest sectional of that race. The switch to turf should suit and needs some luck from a wide draw. 2nd Pick: BOUNTY RAINBOWS (6) Winner of both his trials in pretty good time. Manoel Nunes has ridden him in both of those and he sticks with him for his debut. Will be well supported in betting. 3rd Pick: BINGO MASTER (2) Has race experience to his name. A nice placing last start behind Sand Box who on the day was a surprise win. Since then he was a runner-up again and that form is standing up. 4th Pick: ALQANTUR (5) Trialled nice since arriving. Should get a nice break from barrier two and must respect a first starter from this stable. Watch any market moves for him.

TIPS 2 UNIVERSAL EMPIRE 7 BUUARAQ 6 RENZO 4 OUR PINNACLE

PREVIEW 1st Pick: UNIVERSAL EMPIRE (2) 36.4% winning strike rate track and distance. Form suggests that he should be firing here fresh and is also coming off a nice trial win running sub one minute. 2nd Pick: BUUARAQ (7) Massive run once again last start, just too far back at the turn. Motored home into fourth and once again, gets enough pace to be running on here again late, hopefully settles a few pairs closer this time around. 3rd Pick: RENZO (6) Was wanting a little late last start, but, possibly, the fact he didn't find the lead is a big reason for that. Happy to entertain in the hope he finds the front and keeps the pace genuine. 4th Pick: OUR PINNACLE (4) Earns 1kg for its close second last start going down a nose. Should be sitting just off a quick tempo this weekend and be there to pounce on them late. Has to be considered as a threat.

TIPS 9 TURF BEAUTY 2 MAXIMILIAN 5 LIM'S SHOT 8 CIZEN LUCKY

PREVIEW 1st Pick: TURF BEAUTY (9) Just nosed out by another mare in Blitz Power last week. On the quick back-up. Drop back in distance is not necessarily to her advantage, but with Manoel Nunes up, she will still give some sight in the home straight. 2nd Pick: MAXIMILIAN (2) Ignored last run when trapped deep. Left without a sprint in straight. Shadow roll off. Can bounce back after drawing an alley. 3rd Pick: LIM'S SHOT (5) Stablemate to the selection and who will appreciate the extra 200m after his closing fourth over 1000m last time out, though Polytrack is more his go. 4th Pick: CIZEN LUCKY (8) Jockey queried for his ride last week. Jumped slowly, but made some ground late. Appeals more for a place.

TIPS 3 CON SPERANZA 2 SUN POWER 9 ROYALTY 5 SUPERLATIVE

PREVIEW 1st Pick: CON SPERANZA (3) Missed away last start and settled midfield but was getting into the race when it was all too late. With a more positive position in running, he should find himself in the finish. 2nd Pick: SUN POWER (2) Will also be up near the speed again. Last start was back on the fence and presented for a run but just missed running a close second. Back to turf a slight question mark but last run deserves respect. 3rd Pick: ROYALTY (9) Should get the necessary pace to be running on late here again thanks to a couple of pace influences in the race. At 600kg+ he is a big horse and was making good ground last start, the clear best in behind a classy Lucky Jinsha. 4th Pick: SUPERLATIVE (5) Has a nice record on the Long Course over a mile with a win and second from two starts. That is enough for me to respect him here coming off a nice first-up hit-over 1000m where he surprised running on for second.

TIPS 1 BEN WADE 7 GLOBAL SPIRIT 4 RETALLICA 2 LIM'S PRIDE

PREVIEW 1st Pick: BEN WADE (1) Looks a standout on paper. Has only missed a place once in his last four starts and even then was three lengths behind the winner. Manoel Nunes on and barrier three. A lot in his favour. 2nd Pick: GLOBAL SPIRIT (7) Two solid placings at his previous starts. Drawn nicely in five and should get the run of the race putting him in striking distance for the business end of the race. 3rd Pick: RETALLICA (4) Ideal distance and liked his run last start behind Country Boss where he was wide and did it tough. Both of his career victories have come over course and distance. 4th Pick: LIM'S PRIDE (2) Disappointing last start but no real reason why other than he was caught wide and failed to finish off. It is better than that and willing to give another look.

Duel on for UAE trainers' title

ADVANTAGE: BHUPAT SEEMAR HOLDS A NARROW LEAD OVER DOUG WATSON

➔ Magical Land could turn it on for De Kock stable.

Ed Marnane

Approaching the halfway stage of the UAE season the race to be champion trainer is heating up. Bhupat Seemar holds a narrow lead over Doug Watson and both Dubai-based handlers will have plenty of runners at Meydan on Sunday.

In the Race 5 feature, a 1600m handicap on turf, Watson runs British import Aquaman and McManaman, with preference for the latter. A winner on turf at Meydan last season, he caught the eye behind Alkaamel earlier in the month, staying on nicely from the rear to finish eight lengths behind the Musabbeh Al Mheiri-trained winner.

GOOD DEBUT. Magical Land was an unlucky loser for the Mike de Kock stable at Meydan last time and could make amends when he contests Race 5 at the same course on Sunday. Picture: Dubai Racing Club

He should improve going up in trip to 1600m and holds sound claims in a very competitive race.

Magical Land, trained by Mike de Kock, made a bright start for his connections on his local debut recently. Ridden by Ronald Woodworth, he was beaten in a photo-finish by the unexposed Silent Film, trained by Charlie Appleby. By Frankel, Magical Land fetched AE120,000 (R495,000) at Racing In Dubai Sale in September and he looks exciting recruit for de Kock's Dubai team.

Valiant Prince, owned by Godolphin, has a wide draw to overcome on his seasonal reappearance. Trained by Charlie Appleby, he's a lightly raced Dubawi gelding that is open to plenty of improvement having just fifth run of his career and commands obvious respect under William Buick. Franz Kafka, who has to concede weight to his rivals, has been off the track nearly 23 months ago is one to consider if anywhere near fully fit. He has run well at Meydan, finishing second to Star Safari on his last appearance and is ideally berthed in stall five.

Bhupat Seemar introduces Royal Mews, a AE520,000 (R2.15-million) Racing In Dubai Sale in September.

The British import, the choice of Tadhg O'Shea of Zabeel Stables two runners, impressed when winning a maiden at Chelmsford. He's very unexposed and is only having his fifth run of his life, and just second on turf. From a yard that continues to bang in the winners, he can't be underestimated despite his lack of experience.

The most interesting race on the card is the three-year-old 1600m dirt maiden, Race 3. The event has attracted all the top yards and there is no shortage of well-bred horses declared. Seemar and O'Shea team up with the unraced Al Habash, a colt by Dubai World Cup winner Arrogate out of a Grade 1 winner on dirt.

Nicholas Bachalard, who introduced a smart three-year-old at Jebel Ali eight days ago, runs Mosheer.

Withering, trained by Fawzi Nass, he made a solid start on his dirt debut last month. Formerly trained by Jamie Osborne, he was caught in the final strides by Azure Coast and holds obvious claims of going one better.

Doug Watson's Sari Dubai shaped with minor promise on his debut and should not be discounted with the benefit of that experience in the hands of Pat Dobbs.

Thirty-five minutes earlier the fillies-and-mares maiden over 1400m on turf, is a moderate contest and nothing jumps off the page. Shalfa failed to make any impression behind exciting Shahama on her local debut, trailing in nearly 15 lengths behind her stable companion.

She can open her account switching to turf, her first start on grass.

A full field of 16 go to post for Race 4, the 1200m handicap on turf. Jadwal appreciated return to turf when second Dahawi having only beating two home at Jebel Ali on his local debut. Doug Watson's four-year-old can go close and is the choice of Dane O'Neill of the Shadwell six runners.

Watson is responsible for five of the 13 runners in Race 6, the 1900m handicap on dirt. Far Sky, Winners Club and Mulfit look the ones to focus on, with preference for the last-named under George Buckell. He impressed when winning here earlier in the season and has twice run well in defeat, the latest when fourth behind Sanad Libya.

Nicely drawn in stall No 4, he gets the vote.

Echo Point will take plenty of stopping in the final race, a 2000m handicap on turf. Trained by Charlie Appleby, he's very unexposed and can exploit a mark of 88 on his first appearance of the season. The sole negative is that he's badly drawn out wide, not ideal in a handicap that has drawn a maximum field of 16.

Talk about Garrulous in Dubai

FEATURE: DE KOCK SENDS OUT SA-BRED RUNNER IN G2 AL FAHIDI FORT

» Godolphin challenge will be hard to peg back.

Ed Marnane

A pair of Group 2s — Al Rashidiya and Al Fahidi Fort — are the twin highlights at Meydan today, the second meeting of the 2022 Dubai World Cup Carnival.

Mike de Kock has an impressive record in the Al Fahidi Fort, the South African handler capturing the prize no less than six times and he saddles Garrulous in this year's renewal, Race 5.

The lightly raced four-year-old, who was Grade 2 placed on his final start in South Africa for Glen Kotzen, makes his Dubai debut on his first start for De Kock following a stint in France under the care of Francis-Henri Grafard.

He faces a stiff task taking on a powerful Godolphin challenge, led by last year's winner Land Of Legends for Saeed bin Suroor and Frankie Dettori. Hailing from a yard that is renowned to having them ready to roll off a break, he will take plenty of beating on his first run since finishing a creditable fifth in the Dubai Turf in March last year.

William Buick has elected to ride Naval Crown, one of two runners representing Charlie Appleby who has won five of the last seven renewals. Now four, he can boast some smart form in Europe last year, most notably when a good second to the progressive Creative Force in the Jersey Stakes at Royal Ascot. He demands plenty of respect and is nicely berthed for a horse that likes to be handy.

La Barrosa, Naval Crown's stable companion, has the benefit of a recent run at Meydan, where he finished a respectable third behind Path Of Thunder. He needs to step up on that form in deeper waters.

Storm Damage, trained by Saeed bin Suroor, was highly progressive last year, winning three of his four races. Unraced at two, he's open to plenty of improvement and is one for shortlist under Hector Crouch, a rider that has a decent strike-rate when booked by Suroor.

First run in 2000, the Al Rashidiya has attracted a classy field and sees the evergreen Lord Glitters seek another big prize in the Middle East.

Winner of the Singspiel and the Jebel Hatta at Meydan last season, he demonstrated he retained his enthusiasm and ability when swooping fast and late to win the Bahrain International Trophy in November.

Trained by David O'Meara, he is the oldest horse in the line-up having turned nine on New Year's Day and is likely to find Godolphin's battalions too strong.

Frankie Dettori rides the quirky but talented Bedouin's Story, a horse that possesses a sharp turn of foot and won a competitive 16-runner handicap at Meydan 12 months ago. The Farhh gelding, trained by Saeed bin Suroor, comes with risks as he's frequently slowly away, but is suited by the conditions and holds leading claims.

Charlie Appleby has had the winner of the last two runnings of the Al Rashidiya and is three-handed, with stable jockey William Buick choosing to ride Art Du Val. He wasn't beaten far in three runs at Meydan last season, all in Group company. He has to defy a lengthy absence having been off the track since finishing a close fourth behind Lord Glitters in the Jebel Hatta.

The Dubai Racing Club has bolstered the three-year-old programme this season and the trial for the Jumeriah Derby, Race 2, sees Sed Maarib make a quick re-appearance. Seven days ago, he caught the eye when staying on strongly from the tail of the field to finish second to Sovereign Prince over 1400m after a sluggish start.

He left the impression he would relish the step up in distance and this well-bred son of US Triple Crown hero American Pharoah can provide his in-form trainer Fawzi Nass with another success at Meydan.

Charlie Appleby-trained New Kingdom, a son of Dubawi, is the chief threat on his seasonal debut. Owned by Godolphin, he showed a decent level of ability in the UK last year, winning a novice stakes at Haydock on his second run when getting better of Dark Moon Rising after a protracted battle.

Appleby's Albhar, winner of the Grade 1 Summer Stakes, returns in the trial for the UAE 2000 Guineas, race 3. Having his first run on dirt, he has to defy a 3 kg penalty for his victory at

DEBUT. Garrulous will be lining up for Mike de Kock in the Grade 2 Al-Fahidi Fort at Meydan in Dubai tonight. Picture: Gold Circle

Woodbine in September. Bred and owned by Godolphin, he had a nasty experience at the Breeders' Cup when he flipped in the starting stalls in the Juvenile Turf and was withdrawn.

Being by Dubawi out of a Street Cry mare, Albahr is bred to act on the surface and his brother, Imperial Empire, has won two of his three starts on dirt at Meydan.

Seven days after Brazilian-bred Bet Law won the Festival City Stakes (Listed), the South American runners Kiefer and Quality Boone both demand obvious respect.

Saints will aim to slow City

»» Liverpool and Chelsea will be holding thumbs that Southampton can halt Manchester City's 12-match winning sequence when they clash at St Mary's tomorrow.

By Mark Gleeson

Manchester City's winning run in the English Premier League now spans 12 games and has them well on course to retain the title.

A tricky trip to Southampton tomorrow should signal whether Pep Guardiola's team will romp to the title or leave the likes of Liverpool and Chelsea with a chance of catching up.

Southampton have lost only one of their last 10 games at home at St Mary's Stadium and beat Manchester City there two seasons ago.

But lately they have not been all that impressive in front of their own fans. They have won only three of their last 10 home matches and two of those successes were by a lone goal.

But the 4-1 thumping of Brentford some 10 days ago offers hope they might be able to hold the champions to a draw and cause something of an upset.

Liverpool, who are away at Crystal Palace on Sunday, and Chelsea, who host Tottenham Hotspur the same day, need the City juggernaut to be halted if they are to still to mount a challenge. City have some tricky fixtures in forthcoming games.

Manchester United and Tottenham are the headline names, but there are more subtle potential banana skins on their path.

Crystal Palace are flying high this season and have made a habit of upsetting Guardiola over the past few campaigns, while Everton have the odd upset in them, especially now that Rafa Benitez has gone.

Liverpool will be looking for the Saints to prevent City from scoring another three points, but they face a tough few weeks themselves without Sadio Mane and Mohamed Salah, who are both away at the Africa Cup of Nations.

Liverpool have an impressive record at Selhurst Park, scoring a 7-0 win on their last visit. But while hoping that Manchester City will slip up, they can ill afford to do so themselves.

TAB soccer customers will be delighted that Spain's LaLiga is back with a full programme as Real Madrid look to maintain their lead in the table by beating Elche.

The knockout phase of Cup of Nations begins on Sunday when more shocks are in the offing.

BURKINA CAPTAIN IS READY

Burkina Faso captain Bertrand Traore is back from COVID-19 isolation to lead his country in the opening match of the knockout phase of the Africa Cup of Nations. But his Gabon counterpart Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang's career is in jeopardy after he had to return to Arsenal for tests on cardiac lesions detected after contracting the virus.

POGBA RETURNS TO TRAINING

Paul Pogba returned to training this week following nearly three months on the sidelines with a thigh problem and could play this weekend. Injuries have restricted the 28-year-old to nine league appearances this season.

FERGUSON BACK IN HOT SEAT

Duncan Ferguson has taken over as Everton's caretaker manager after the sacking of Spaniard Rafa Benitez and will be in charge against Aston Villa tomorrow. This will be Ferguson's second stint as interim manager of the Toffees, following a spell in December 2019 when he took charge after the sacking of Portuguese coach Marco Silva.

BARCA HOPE FORWARDS FIT

Barcelona are sweating on the availability of forwards Ousmane Dembélé and Memphis Depay for Sunday's trip to Deportivo Alaves. Both have had hamstring problems and struggled over the last few months.

NEW COVID SPORTS PROTOCOL

The Italian government has approved a new sports protocol outlining clearer guidelines on when a match should be postponed for COVID-19 related reasons. Now fixtures must be played unless 35% or more of the players in a squad have tested positive for the virus. Players testing positive must self-isolate, while their close contacts do not have to. But they must be continually tested for five days, wear an FFP2 mask off the pitch and record a negative test result four hours before a match. Italy has struggled with soaring COVID-19 cases in recent weeks.

M1 Everton vs Aston Villa: Everton fired manager Rafa Benitez after their weekend loss to Norwich. Villa are without a win in their past four matches.
M2 Swansea City vs Preston North End: Swansea have been slipping down the table in the Championship after five games without success. Preston have won three of their last five away games.

M3 Levante vs Cadiz: Levante won their first LaLiga game of the season after 19 unsuccessful attempts in their last match. Cadiz are second from bottom in the table, just three points above them, and this is a tough match to call.

M4 Genoa vs Udinese: Three of the past four clashes between these Italian Serie A clubs have ended in draws with Udinese winning the other.

M5 Borussia Monchengladbach vs Union Berlin: Gladbach beat Bundesliga champions Bayern after the winter break, but then lost at home to Bayer Leverkusen on Saturday. Union have lost only once in five past meetings with Gladbach.

M6 TSG 1899 Hoffenheim vs Borussia Dortmund: Hoffenheim have won only two of their past seven home matches against Dortmund, who were knocked out of the German Cup by Bundesliga 2 leaders St Pauli midweek.

M7 Brentford vs Wolverhampton Wanderers: Brentford won 2-0 away against Wolves last September, but were trounced 3-0 by their rivals before that.

M8 Leeds United vs Newcastle United: Leeds got an important away win over West Ham at the weekend. Newcastle are second from bottom in the English Premier League after going six games without a victory.

M9 Manchester United vs West Ham United: West Ham have already won at Old Trafford this season in the League Cup, but come into this game off a shock loss to Leeds.

M10 Villarreal vs Mallorca: Villarreal are 13-9 ahead of Mallorca in the head-to-head comparison between the two Spanish LaLiga clubs, who have played out nine draws in 31 past clashes.
