Quality field lines up for Paddock Stakes

Jack Milner

Trainer Candice Bass-Robinson is on the mark when she says the Grade 1 Cartier Paddock Stakes over 1800m at Kenilworth tomorrow is the strongest line-up seen for some time.

All of Captain's Ransom, She's A Keeper, Princess Calla, Marina, Pretty Betty and Chansonette have won or been placed in graded races.

Justin Snaith-trained Captain's Ransom is a strong favourite and her form is outstanding - up to 1600m. Of course, she has yet to race further than that so she is an unknown quantity but that does have to be a concern.

In 10 outings, there are only two blemishes on her record. She was touched off in the Listed Iridescence Stakes over 1500m in her third starts and finished unplaced in the Grade 1 Garden Province Stakes over 1600m at Greyville.

The rest of her card is flawless.

She has the ability to turn it on so quickly that she leaves the rest of the field in her wake, and even if she does not see out 1800m, she may get so far clear the pack won't be able to reel her in before the line.

Richard Fourie takes the ride.

Her main danger could be Marina as she definitely stays. In fact, Bass-Robinson's concern is this race could be a touch short.

"This is certainly the strongest field she's taken on, but I rate my filly," she said. "She's an improving filly, but 1800m could be a touch sharp so she needs a fair pace."

Which is why Bass-Robinson has put Jet For Time in the field as she wants to snuff out a possible Cape Crawl.

Marina, a full sister to Durban July winner Marinaresco, is getting better with age and she has a record of eight wins and three places from 13 runs. Unlike Captain's Ransom, the daughter of Silvano takes a while to get going but once she does, she runs them down quickly. Aldo Domeyer takes the ride.

Adam Marcus-trained Princess Calla would love to see the back of Captain's Ransom. Unfortunately, that's all she has seen of her rival in three of their four meetings, but she did get the edge in the Garden Province Stakes. She also will enjoy the extra 200m and is not without a chance, especially with Uncle Anton in the irons.

Queen to see change of guard

IMPROVING: KOMMETDIEDING, LINEBACKER TO FIGHT OUT FINISH OF QUEEN'S PLATE

» Many hearts will be with Rainbow Bridge.

Jack Milner

When interviewing trainers prior to a race one always asks which runners they view as the main threat.

We get various answers but the most unique came from Michelle Rix, who trains Kommetdieding with her father, Harold Crawford. Their charge will be running in the Grade 1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate over 1600m at Kenilworth tomorrow.

"He has improved, he has strengthened up and I'm quietly confident. I think our horse needs to be viewed as the danger to the others."

It might sound a touch of arrogant, but Kommetdieding proved in his Durban July victory he is a horse to be reckoned with. "I don't like to be overconfident, but I am more confident for this race than all of his previous races, because I know how much he has improved," said Rix.

The four-year-old son of Elusive Fort has only had one run this season, and that was in the Cape Mile. He was strongly fancied to win that race on the Winter Course, but things did not go his way. He suffered interference at the 1400m mark and then was badly cut into, but still managed to produce the fastest finish to run a 1.25-length third behind Warrior.

"It didn't work out for us, but he was not super fit, and the short run-in didn't suit him. We made the decision to run him there rather than the Green Point Stakes and once we took that option we were not going to change.

"Right now, we could not have asked for a more sound and fitter racehorse, and I'm looking forward to Saturday," said Rix.

Her charge is 2kg better off with Warrior and all things being equal, is expected to reverse the result with Justin Snaith's charge.

Gavin Lerena, who won the Durban July on him, takes the ride once again.

MATURING. Kommetdieding is improving with age and is the runner to beat in tomorrow's Grade 1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate over 1600m at Kenilworth. Picture: Wayne Marks.

Rivalry is always wonderful for any sport and right now the competition between Kommetdieding and fellow four-year-old Linebacker sets the bar, because his trainer, Vaughan Marshall, is equally confident his charge is the horse to beat.

The two have met three times and Linebacker leads the head-tohead 2-1.

Marshall also saddles Grade 2 Green Point Stakes winner Seeking The Stars, a race in which Linebacker ran third. "I'm very happy with both," said Marshall. "Linebacker has come on well since the Green Point and I'm not sure if Seeking The Stars will be as good over 1600m with a strong early pace.

"My preference is definitely for Linebaker. He's a beautiful horse and he has strengthened up a lot as a four-year-old."

Craig Zackey, who won this race two years back with Vardy, rides the gelding for the first time.

We could now be seeing a changing of the guard and these two runners will be in the forefront of that change and should fight out the finish of this R1.5-million race.

However, many hearts will be with Rainbow Bridge who has achieved so much in this sport but has yet to triumph in the Queen's Plate. Now seven years old, it is not getting any easier, but this amazing gelding cannot be written off under any circumstances.

Jet Dark is looking for a second win in this race and is another with a big chance. But he seems to prefer a slow early pace and both Rix and Marshall agree there is going to be a lot of early speed this year.

There are four three-year-olds in the line-up but only the race will tell if they can match the efforts of Jet Dark.

Appleby to rule at Meydan

TALENTED: ONE RULER DROPS IN CLASS AND LOOKS HARD TO BEAT IN ZABEEL TROPHY

» De Kock introduces son of Frankel in Race 5.

Ed Marnane

The Zabeel Trophy, one of five races on turf, tops the nine-race card at Meydan today. Race 7, over 1600m, has attracted a full field of 14 and Godolphin's One Ruler looks the one to beat on his seasonal reappearance for Charlie Appleby.

The four-year-old, the choice of William Buick, was highly tried in Europe last year, contesting the 2000 Guineas and Derby. By Dubawi, One Ruler signed off for the season in France in August, finishing a close fourth in Listed company on his first appearance since being gelded.

He should take plenty of stopping stepping down in grade and having only had 10 starts remains open to further improvement.

La Barrosa, the mount of James Doyle, looks an obvious threat to stablemate One Ruler. It's his first start since being gelded and if he can recapture his form behind Master Of The Seas in the Craven, he can put up a bold show dropping in class. He's very unexposed and is only having his seventh start in public.

Dane O'Neill has chosen the progressive Alfareeq, one of four runners sporting the blue silks of Shadwell. He impressed in a minor event on his seasonal return at Abu Dhabi last month, defeating Yaalail and eight others.

Trained by the in-form Musabeh Al Mheiri, he will have to take a step forward to complete a hat-trick of wins.

Erwan Charpy has booked Adrie de Vries to ride Moqtarreb, winner of the National Day at Abu Dhabi (Listed) on his seasonal reappearance. He looked an improved performer on his first start for the Frenchman and if finding further progress, he can't be underestimated having produced a sharp turn of foot to deny the dead-heaters Spirit Of Light and Seniority in the capital last month.

Mike de Kock introduces well-bred Magical Land, a son of Frankel, in the second division of the 1400m handicap on turf in Race 5.

He cost A€120,000 (R520,000) at September's Racing in Dubai

Sale at Meydan and faces 13 rivals in a competitive contest.

Winner of one of his seven races for Godolphin, he's entitled to need the run after a break and his former stable companion Silent Film, a lightly raced colt, is a strong fancy to come out on top for Charlie Appleby.

He progressed with racing in the UK last year, winning twice and did not finish worse than fourth in five outings. It looks significant that Appleby has kept him in reserve for Dubai campaign and elected not to run him after scoring at Sandown in June.

The form of that race is very strong, the fourth went on to win at Grade 3 level in the US and the runner-up has won twice since.

Bhupat Seemar, since taking over the reins at Zabeel Stables, has his team in cracking form and continues to bang in the winners, taking Saturday's feature, the Al Garhoud Sprint (Listed), with Switzerland.

He brings a powerful team from his local base to Meydan and should be among the winners.

Zero To Hundred, trained by Seemar, looks the answer in Race 4, a 1600m handicap on dirt. A winner over the course and distance earlier in the campaign, he wasn't beaten far last time, and this looks a good opportunity to take his career tally to two, all on Meydan's main track.

Seemar, operating at 17% strike rate at Meydan, is represented by the exciting Al Nefud in the 1600m rated conditions race for four-year-olds, race 8. The son of Dubawi looked above average when landing a gamble in a 1600m maiden on his local and dirt debut last month.

Formerly trained by Charlie Appleby, he was never extended when making all to defeat Atlantic Sky and Miami Joy, storming clear off the bend to score by a comfortable six and quarter lengths in a decent time. This is a much tougher test but I fancy he will be up to the task.

A solid case can be made for the Uruguayan challenger El Patriota, trained by Antonio Cintra Pereira. He showed a likeable attitude when winning the Al Bastakiya trial on his UAE debut last season, coming with a late and strong challenge to grab the spoils close home and provide his trainer with a dream comeback in Dubai.

Not seen since struggling in the UAE Derby in March, El Patriota has obvious fitness issues but it's encouraging his trainer saddled a recent winner at Meydan with a horse that was returning following a lengthy layoff.

Get set for Cup upsets

➔ A Kempton Park TAB customer collected over R9 million with a R256 Soccer 13 bet last Sunday and more big payouts loom in TAB soccer pools this weekend when FA Cup third-round clashes are included in the various pools.

By Mark Gleeson

The famous FA Cup in England hits top speed this weekend with 32 third-round clashes from today through Monday and TAB soccer customers can look forward to some big payouts because this is a competition that invariably provides several bone-jarring upsets.

It's in the third round when 20 survivors from the earlier rounds are joined by the 44 teams from the English Premier League and Championship. That makes for 32 third-round clashes, seven of which are included in Saturday's first Soccer 10 pool.

It will come as no surprise to see a couple of English Premier League clubs fall at the first hurdle. They include Brighton and Hove Albion, who are away to competent Championship team West Bromwich Albion, and struggling Burnley who are at home to in-form Huddersfield Town.

Also this weekend the Africa

Nations of Cup gets underway in Cameroon on Sunday, one year after it was originally scheduled and amid concerns over the readiness and quality of facilities. COVID-19 saw it postponed from January 2021, but the extra year's grace has not been fully used by the home country and work on the showpiece new stadium in Yaoundé has not been completed.

The Confederation of African Football set a deadline of late November for the Olembe Stadium to be finished, threatening to move the opening game unless the venue was ready.

But that threat has not been carried out and the new 60,000-seater stadium will host the opening clashes on Sunday, when Group A gets underway with Cameroon against Burkina Faso, followed by Ethiopia versus the Cape Verde Islands.

The tournament runs from Sunday through to the final, also at Olembe, on 6 February.

Cameroon last hosted the final 50 years ago in 1972 and were disappointing, losing in the semi-final under a heavy burden of expectation. This time round it will be no different with home supporters believing their team will win, but the Indomitable Lions are by no means among the favoured nations.

Their side - like many other traditional Cup of Nations heavyweights - has battled with form over the last year and does not look to be strong enough to go all the way.

Ghana, Ivory Coast and Nigeria are among other past winners to have struggled of late and do not look good enough to win the trophy. Nigeria have added to their own woes by firing Gernot Rohr just one month before the event.

Defending champions Algeria lead the strong challenge from Arabic-speaking North Africa, along with Egypt, Morocco and Tunisia, while Senegal has a squad that has been considerably strengthened over the last year.

The tournament does have a COVID cloud hanging over its head. CAF will be testing the players for the virus, using a laboratory brought from Europe and there have already been several positive cases among the various teams at their training camps.

If players test positive during the tournament, they will have to isolate although there is no prescribed time frame, which presumes then that they will be allowed back to join their teammates once they return a negative test.

BRIEFS

COVID HITS BAYERN FOR NINE

Bundesliga champions Bayern Munich have been devastated by COVID-19 positive cases with Manuel Neuer, Dayot Upamecano, Omar Richards, Leroy Sané, Kingsley Coman, Lucas Hernández, Tanguy Nianzou, Corentin Tolisso and Alphonso Davies all due to miss tonight's game against Borussia Moenchengladbach.

WATFORD'S GOOD AND BAD NEWS

Watford have strengthened their line-up by signing Ivory Coast international Hassane Kamara from French club Nice and he can play in this weekend's FA Cup tie against Leicester as he was left out of his country's squad for the Cup of Nations finals. But The Hornets are without four other players who have gone to Cameroon for the finals.

MORE PROBLEMS FOR BARCA

Barcelona were handed a fresh blow in midweek when defender Ronald Araujo suffered an injury to a hand. He's their 12th squad member currently sidelined by injury or COVID. Frenkie de Jong was also hurt, but it's unknown currently whether he will play against Granada tomorrow when Barcelona go for their third win in a row.

BAD TO WORSE FOR BURNLEY

Burnley manager Sean Dyche will miss tomorrow's FA Cup third round tie at home to Huddersfield Town after testing positive for COVID-19 on Tuesday. He is following the mandatory self-isolation protocols. Other managers to recently test positive are Mikel Arteta, Eddie Howe and Jurgen Klopp.

CAMEROON GET A BOOST

Cup of Nations hosts Cameroon received a boost ahead of Sunday's Group A opener when key defender Michael Ngadeu Ngadjui and midfielder Pierre Kunde, who went into isolation last week after testing positive for COVID, returned to training.

PREVIEW KwaZulu-Natal racing returns to Scottsville. Nicely bred debutantes could dominate matters in the first as the raced runners have not impressed. SPRING FEVER can improve as she should jump better while SWEETER THAN HONEY could prefer this 1000m trip. But trainer Mike Miller has reported that WOODLAND RETREAT is a very nice filly and will run well and he has already had good success with his juveniles this season. AMEENA is another bred to fly. She has the added benefit of an apprentice claim and should come in for support.

PREVIEW Ignore BEECHAMWOOD BOY's racecourse debut. He didn't enjoy the switch to 1400m and had other valid excuses. He flew up in his previous races over this distance and the form has worked well. But there is plenty of opposition. THE BRIEF was third to Coin Spinner and that form line has proven very strong with as many as four winners coming out of that race. However, he drops in distance after a break. GREY VIEW is also racing after a rest but has the speed to get away and will race fresh. Ex-Highveld runners PHAKA IMALI and GLOBAL VISION are capable of upsetting.

PREVIEW AMARANDI was beaten as favourite last time and can make amends as her best performance was up the straight at this course. RUN AGAIN has plenty scope and could be the dark horse. She came from last to finish fourth, not far off AMARANDI and others, and should not go backward. SKY CAFE had something go amiss last time and that run is best ignored. She should have a fair chance if building on her previous effort. RASPBERRY BERET was unlucky to lose her third start. Should have every chance. QUEEN MERCURY, WINTER JOURNEY and GUEST GETORIXX aren't out of it either.

PREVIEW KAPEN PRIDE is looking for the turf track these days. He was dangerous last time and if getting the pace he needs could mow them down in this longer straight. MASTER OF DESTINY also enjoyed switching to the turf last time, winning well enough to suggest he could repeat. However, he is switching to Scottsville and dropping in distance. Watch out for ARTIC TUNE who produced some devastating finishes in his first three starts. He is lightly raced and may have issues but obviously is highly talented. CAPTAIN SEAGER wasn't disgraced in a strong Conditional Graduation race and then confirmed with a decent run back in a handicap. The form has been franked. CUPID'S SONG is the dark horse as has now matured. He has gate No 1 and should make it count. MASTER VISION is knocking hard at the door but has been set a stiffer task at the weights. She finally jumps from a good barrier and could further boost her confidence on her handicap debut if taking to Scottsville. RISE has been running well in stronger company. To add to her advantage she has a 4kg apprentice claim which could test her rivals to the full. SEA EAGLE gave signs she was ready to challenge for more prize money last time. PREVIEW Nice race - all are useful sprinters. It should get close between ISHANA and SPYDAS CORNER. The former won an amazing race at Greyville last time and is perhaps even better at Scottsville but the weights make it tough. He beat SPYDAS CORNER by 3.05 lengths but is 5.5kg worse off. WINTER FLIGHT has won two of his last three on the poly but has been dangerous at this course as well. CHALLENGE: HIGHVELD TRAINER FACES MIGHT OF THE CAPE IN SCEPTRE STAKES

Jack Milner

When it comes to today's running of the Grade 2 Cartier Sceptre Stakes over 1200m at Kenilworth, it is literally a case of Sean Tarry versus Cape Town's "Big Three".

Despite 16 horses carded to run, only four trainers are represented in the field. Justin Snaith has eight runners, Candice Bass-Robinson five, Brett Crawford two – and Tarry just one – Sound Of Warning.

Ironically, in spite of all the might the Cape can throw at him, Tarry's charge is the runner they all have to beat.

She is the best weighted runner in this field for fillies and mares at weight-for-age and has won three of her five starts, two of them feature races. She also finished second behind stable companion Under Your Spell in the Grade 1 Allan Robertson Championship over 1200m at Scottsville last year.

She is beautifully bred, by Trippi out of Siren's Call. Her dam won five of her 10 starts and in 2015 came within a head of taking out the Tripe Tiara when touched off by Pine Princess in the SA Oaks after looking all over a winner.

She is drawn against the paint on the inside rail which is not bad place to be at Kenilworth, and has Richard Fourie, who could probably ride that course wearing a blindfold, in the irons.

Against her is that she had to do all the travelling and is an unknown factor at the course.

Bass-Robinson, when asked which was the best of her runners, she answered without hesitation, "Santa Maria".

"She's my best runner and my

ABILITY: Sound Of Warning has proven her class but will face her biggest task when she lines up in the Grade 2 Cartier Sceptre Stakes over 1200m at Kenilworth today. Picture: JC Photographics best chance in the race. She's a game filly and was unlucky not to go closer last time."

That last run was when finishing a 0.30-length third behind Kitty Cat Chat and Capitana, both of whom are also in this race. In fact, 10 of those runners will be reopposing in this field and Santa Maria is weighted to beat them all.

Keagan de Melo, who rode her at time, is back on board.

Of her other runners Bass added that while Amanzimtoti should be running on, this is a prep run for her. "Dancetildaylight could run well but she's going to find it tough in that company."

The other feature on the day is Race 6, the Listed Ardmore Jamaica Handicap for fillies and mares over 2000m, and this is a highly competitive event. Many runners have winning chances but one filly who is on the up is Crawford-trained Celtic Night.

The four-year-old daughter of Vercingetorix has a lot going for her, barring one thing – she is untried over the distance. Her best runs to date have been over 1600m although she has managed to pull off one victory over 1800m. But that was at Durbanville, which is generally a quicker track, and she managed to hold on by a head.

However, Crawford has two runners in the field and stable jockey Louis Mxothwa has elected to ride this filly rather than Pink Tourmaline who is a course-and-distance winner. Celtic Night is up in class but that has resulted in a lower weight, and she carries just 55kg in this event.

A bigger danger to Celtic Night is Snaith-trained Silver Darling who comes in with just 54kg on her back. She has run just five times for two wins and two seconds, but she has not raced beyond 1600m. She is by Silvano, so there is stamina in her bloodline, but progeny of that sire tend to develop it as they get older.

Snaith has engaged Muzi Yeni for the ride.

Fynbos has won over the course and distance but these days she seems to need even further and has been contesting events over 2400m. Vaughan Marshall's charge is drawn No 11 and will need a good early pace if she is to win.

Snaith has good back-up with two other runners besides Silver Darling and they could also get into the fray.

Black Silver won a good race over the course and distance last time and if she can deal with the jump in class, must also come into the reckoning.

She is beautifully drawn in gate No 1 and has Grant van Niekerk in the irons.

Snaith predicts a good voyage

Danie Toerien

Justin Snaith is definitely the trainer to follow at Kenilworth tomorrow on the second day of the L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival.

The National Champion Trainer has made this race day his own, as attested by his phenomenal record.

Not only has Snaith saddled two of last three winners of the main race, the Grade 1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate over 1600m, but at last year's event he took the honours in no less than four of the ten races contested on the Saturday.

Apart from his four winners, he also saddled ten other top-four finishers.

This year, at the 161st renewal of this prestigious event, the trainer aims to emulate – or even improve on – his record.

Snaith holds a strong hand in all the races, saddling multiple contestants in almost every race. This is a strategy which seems to be working like a charm. According to the trainer it does give him a competitive advantage over his rivals.

Despite saddling four of the Queen's Plate hopefuls this year – the same number as last year – Snaith believes his two runners with the best chance of tasting success on the day is Bon Boyage and Captain's Ransom.

In fact, the trainer suggests that taking a double on these two runners could be the best bet of the day. Bon Boyage contests Race 3, a Maiden Plate over 1400m, while Captain's Ransom will be in action in Race 6, the Grade 1 Cartier Paddock Stakes over 1800m.

"Obviously Captain's Ransom is in very good form at the moment and will be the filly to beat," said Snaith. She does boast a record of eight wins from ten runs, including two Grade 1 victories.

"It's going to be a very exciting day. We are in for a day of top racing with top horses. It's proper racing," said Snaith.

Travel to Cape always a concern, explains Tarry

Danie Toerien

It is somewhat surprising that multiple champion trainer Sean Tarry has only one runner in the two-day L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival, at Kenilworth this weekend.

But then again, the Highveld conditioner is known for saying that he doesn't enter horses in a race just to fill the field, but that every one of his runners must have a realistic chance of success.

Tarry today saddles his lone raider, Sound Of Warning, in the Grade 2 Cartier Sceptre Stakes for fillies and mares over 1200m, and she does look the runner to beat in the main event on the first day of the festival.

"We always try to be competitive in the feature races," said Tarry yesterday.

"The question if she's good enough: there's no doubt about that. I think that she is improving.

"Everything has gone well up to now. She's travelled very well. Her work has been good. But the Kenilworth 1200 is also a different 1200m. We just hope that she copes with the course and distance itself and the way the race is run."

Having been drawn right against the inside barrier is not something Tarry is concerned about.

"In Cape racing a lot depends on the day. Drawn against the rail doesn't seem to be a disadvantage at all.

"The conditions on the day will be a factor, though, especially the wind, but I'm not unhappy."

Tarry is also more than pleased to have secured the services of jockey Richard Fourie.

"I think Richard is one of the best in the country and he knows Kenilworth like the back of his hand. I am very pleased to have him on.

"It will be first time he will ride her in a race, but he has worked with her, and he is pretty happy," he said.

Explaining his decision to send only one runner to the festival, Tarry said: "Obviously, it's always such a big obstacle if you have to travel from Johannesburg to Cape Town.

"But we have to do it when we've got the horses. We can't just leave it for the Cape Town to have it their own way.

"If you haven't got the right horse, first of all, you can't really go.

"I could have run horses like Cirillo and Chimichuri Run in the Queen's Plate, but realistically, I don't feel that I've got them to where I can actually win the race.

"It's one thing supporting the meeting, it's another thing to be realistic and support the meeting with a horse that's got a chance.

"It's not easy. The expenses, for a start, are one thing just to get to Cape Town. And the horses have to travel well. If they don't travel well, then you're sacrificing the Joburg season which is coming up now.

"There's lots to think about when you go to Cape Town. It's not just a matter of let's go and have a race.

"It's not like going to the Vaal. "If it goes wrong, you don't just give your horse a week in the paddock or a week walking and then it's right again. You knock them, so there is a big risk," he said.

Sound Of Warning's performance today in the Cartier Sceptre Stakes will also determine what's next on her agenda. One option is to extend her stay in Cape Town.

"She has been nominated for the Cape Flying Championship (Grade 1) on Met Day. But obviously she will have to give us a very bold showing on Friday for us to consider keeping her for that," said Tarry.

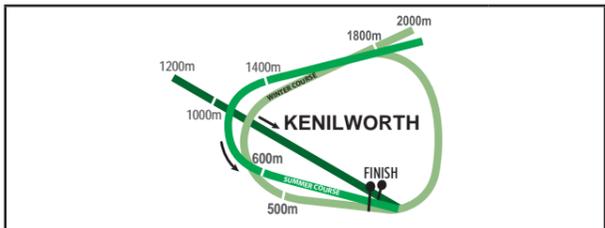

"She's got the credentials. It's probably the right races to go for."

Snaith unpacks youngsters for Queen's Plate challenge

COMMENTS: CHAMPION TRAINER KEEPS HIS CARDS CLOSE TO HIS CHEST

➔ Jockey selection based on compatibility with horse.

Danie Toerien

Only two three-year-olds, both trained by Justin Snaith, have won the Grade 1 L'Ormarins Queen's Plate since the turn of the millennium – Gimmethegreenlight in 2012 and Jet Dark in 2021.

Tomorrow, Snaith attempts to emulate that feat for a third time when the prestigious race returns for the 161st edition.

Like last year, the champion trainer saddles four contestants. But this year, two are three-year-olds: Pomp And Power, and Pacaya.

A year ago, Jet Dark was described as an optimistic entry, but thanks to Snaith's brilliant tactics, this son of Trippi flew home to beat legends like Rainbow Bridge and stable companions Do It Again, and Belgarion.

Tomorrow at Kenilworth, Pacaya seems to be the Snaith flag-bearer, although the trainer would not admit to what he thinks his best runner might be.

"I don't put three-year-olds in the Queen's Plate unless I think they've got a realistic chance," said Snaith when discussing his charges.

"Pacaya is very well. He was very unlucky in the Guineas. He was coming from a long way back and he never got much of a run. You can expect a big improvement from him.

"There's a reason why he's in the race, I can promise you," said Snaith, adding that he's expecting "exactly" the same kind of performance as produced by Jet Dark last year. As for Pomp And Power, Snaith would not elaborate, except to say that "Pomp And Power is a very, very tough horse".

Defending champion Jet Dark and fellow four-year-old Warrior complete the Snaith foursome.

"I will be very happy to see Jet Dark better positioned in this race," said the trainer. "In his last race (the Grade 2 Green Point Stakes over 1600m) he was never in any position. He will have a lot better of a run in this race than in his previous outing.

"Last time he was a long way back and detached from the field. I think you will see a different horse come Queen's Plate Day."

While Snaith was very transparent about his prospects a year ago, he's playing his cards much closer to his chest this year.

That leaves a big question mark about the trainer's expectations of Warrior.

"His last gallop was okay," said Snaith. "I was hoping for a bit better from him."

Considering that his last run was the Cape Mile, where Warrior beat the likes of July winner Kommetdieding, Nexus, Rascallion and Sovereign Spirit, one can't help but wonder what "okay" means in the Snaith vocabulary. That race back in November was Warrior's first after a lengthy rest during which he was also gelded.

"He's a strange horse. At home he never gives away much, and last time he ran okay. It wasn't phenomenal.

"I am hoping that Anton (Marcus) could get him to rise to the occasion. I'm very surprised he beat some of the other horses last time.

"Out of all the horses, Warrior was the one needing the run most of all. I was very surprised that he got in front of all of them.

"Whether he's good enough to beat horses like Rainbow Bridge and Jet Dark is another question. Those horses are of the highest level."

Snaith, admittedly, is also not giving away much, especially when it comes to race day strategy.

"There's not much strategy except to win the race," he said.

"I'm not going to give away too much, except to say we don't try and manipulate too much. The race must be run at a normal pace and the best horse must win.

"Fingers crossed, it's one of mine."

Bettors looking at Snaith's jockey selection will also be none the wiser. Usually when a trainer saddles multiple runners in a race, the jockey selections give an indication of which horse the yard fancies.

"You cannot go on that in my yard at the moment," said Snaith when questioned about this.

"It's impossible nowadays. We are using riders that we think is best for the horse.

"The owners also get a say. If an owner wants a specific jockey on a horse from my yard, he gets it. All I can tell you quite frankly is that the jockey selections are very simple – which jockey rides which horse the best. It's as simple as that."

While Snaith is not yet prepared to show his hand, it is obvious that he has very high expectations of his runners in the Queen's Plate and the rest of the card.

"I've worked hard for this. Our whole team have worked very hard for this weekend. I can assure you. You can see by the numbers and the strength. We have taken no days off. We've worked right through Christmas Day, New Year's Day, we've had no days off.

"We have worked extremely, extremely hard and the results will show."

PREVIEW Day 2 of the LQP Festival and a tricky work riders' maiden to begin one of Cape Racing's flagship meetings. BELLE ROUGE was 2nd over track and trip last time and should continue to improve - rates the one to beat. I'M IN LOVE and LITTLE MISS PINK have the form and experience to make their presence felt. A bigger threat, however, could come from WHAT A STATE who made marked improvement from run No 1 to run No 2 after a break and should have more to offer. Same Trainer - NOT COUPLED on Tote: (2 & 3 & 4) (5 & 8) (6 & 7 & 10) FORECAST BETTING NO FORECAST AVAILABLE. PREVIEW SMITH AND WESSON and WERE JAMMING are the only runners in the line-up with experience. Both finished 2nd in their only outings and that experience should stand them in good stead. The latter showed pace throughout on debut over 900m and was only outrun late, so is marginally preferred. Glen Kotzen runs a trio of newcomers who have all attracted positive talk from the yard so must be respected - watch the betting for clues. STREET OUTLAW, PURE MAVERICK, NOT IN DOUBT and CANFORD LIGHTS are others to make note of on debut. Same Trainer - NOT COUPLED on Tote: (3 & 11) (7 & 9) FORECAST BETTING NO FORECAST AVAILABLE. PREVIEW Good race. BON BOYAGE has finished 2nd in both starts since returning from a break during which he was gelded and looks primed to open his account with the extra 200m likely to suit. POMODORO'S JET was also 2nd in his last start when trying this trip for the first time and will pose a threat if confirming that improvement. TCHAIKOVSKY has the form and experience to make his presence felt, while HEKNOWS is a likely improver over the extra so could feature. Well-bred newcomer GENTLEMAN JOE represents a formidable jockey-trainer combination and must be respected if the market speaks in his favour. PREVIEW REAL GONE KID won four of five starts during 2021. He is unbeaten this season and over 1000m so is hard to oppose in his peak outing, especially having downed champion sprinter Rio Querari last time out. KASIMIR may no longer be the force of old but retains enough ability to keep his younger adversary honest while BARZALONA, who won a course-and-distance feature when last seen, should make his presence felt if in similar mood. Same Trainer - NOT COUPLED on Tote: (2 & 4 & 9 & 10) (3 & 5) FORECAST BETTING 28-10 DO IT AGAIN; 9-2 FIREALLEY; 5-1 SOVEREIGN SPIRIT; 7-1 RUSSIAN ROCK; 8-1 NATIVE TONGUE; 10-1 SUPER SILVANO; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. PREVIEW Good race and an ideal opportunity for stalwart DO IT AGAIN to return to winning ways. He is favourably treated by these conditions and would be tightened up following an eye-catching Cape comeback over track and trip. RUSSIAN ROCK conceals weight to all but arrives in good form and may enjoy a good tow into the race by likely leader ROCKIN RINGO who should get closer to last-start conqueror FIREALLEY on these terms. The latter may struggle on these revised terms to confirm the form of a recent meeting with SUPER SILVANO, HOEDSPRUIT and NATIVE TONGUE. Tricky! FACT FILE TOP EARNERS: DO IT AGAIN (R8,980,350) NEXUS (R684,225) TOP 1ST 3%: DO IT AGAIN (64%) FIREALLEY (63%) BEST MR: DO IT AGAIN (+11) F/B: DO IT AGAIN

Same Trainer - NOT COUPLED on Tote: (2 & 7) (4 & 10) FORECAST BETTING 3-1 CAPTAIN'S RANSOM; 4-1 PRINCESS CALLA; 5-1 MARINA; 6-1 SHE'S A KEEPER; 7-1 CHANSONETTE; 8-1 RAIN IN NEWMARKET; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. PREVIEW Superstar line-up. CAPTAIN'S RANSOM impressed when beating several re-opposing rivals in prep for this and should have their measure again on the revised terms. She does, however, venture beyond 1600m for the first time which could level the playing fields. SHE'S A KEEPER, PRINCESS CALLA and MARINA have a bit to find on ratings but will have no issue going this trip and, as such, are likely to pose a threat. Fillies Guineas winner CHANSONETTE leads the 3yo charge and is still on the up so could well have more to offer over the extra - respect. High-class renewal. FACT FILE TOP EARNERS: CAPTAIN'S RANSOM (R1,043,500) PRINCESS CALLA (R739,100) TOP 1ST 3%: CHANSONETTE (100%) RAIN IN NEWMARKET (100%) BEST MR: CAPTAIN'S RANSOM (+8) F/B: PRINCESS CALLA

PREVIEW Stellar line-up, featuring a handful of Grade 1 winners and a trio of Equus champions. SEEKING THE STARS capitalised on his superior fitness when making all in the Green Point Stakes but is unlikely to have things go his own way again. Both RAINBOW BRIDGE and LINEBACKER are weighted to top the tables on that rival and should arrive fitter. Defending champion JET DARK ought to have tightened up too so should give a competitive account. KOMMETDIEDING and WARRIOR will be sharper this time around and are capable of making their presence felt. POMP AND POWER and TRIP OF FORTUNE could get a look in. PREVIEW Tricky. LOOK FOR HOUNDS won a similar contest over track and trip last time out and may have escaped with just the minimum penalty, so could follow up. SOMERSET MAUGHAM is drawn awkwardly on that rival's outside but will enjoy his rider's 2.5kg claim and should be competitive in his peak outing. TCHALLA impressed over 1200m last time and the manner of that win suggests he'll have no problem stepping up to this trip, although riding arrangements suggest stablemate HIS CHOICE is the stable elect. PREVIEW Wide open. Debut winner QUEEN'S WOOD caught the eye on handicap debut when encountering traffic problems and could be worth following stepped up in trip from a good draw. Last-start scores DOUBLE CHARGE, DRAGONFLY and VENI VIDI VICCI all warrant respect and should make their presence felt. However, a bigger threat could come from QUE SHIRAZ who boasts solid recent form and carries less weight than last time. FORT RED is consistent and cannot be ignored either, while SURJAY and POLTERGEIST remain unexposed and capable of staking a claim. Several others could feature too. Go wide! Table with 4 columns: No, Name, L/Bh, Earn, Career, M/M Comment. Races 1-10.

Same Trainer - NOT COUPLED on Tote: (1 & 4 & 5 & 6) FORECAST BETTING 4-1 CRIMSON KING; 9-2 BLACK KNAP; 5-1 SALVATOR MUNDI; 6-1 ONE WAY TRAFFIC; 8-1 DOUBLEMINT; 10-1 HOLY WARRIOR; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS. PREVIEW SUDDEN STAR and ONE WAY TRAFFIC are unexposed stayers but do race well on or near the speed so are likely to ensure an honest tempo under handy galling weights. CRIMSON KING and BLACK KNAP are closely matched on the form of a recent meeting over course and distance. The latter may have just needed that run after a break and will strip fitter so could confirm superiority despite a 1kg weight turnaround. HOLY WARRIOR and SALVATOR MUNDI ran in the same race but were worse off at the weights. However, the latter caught the eye in that comeback run and could pose more of a threat. Others can earn. Nunes looks set for a good day at Kranji

Luke Middlebrook

Jockey Manoel Nunes, who missed the first meeting of the year due to a suspension, Returns to the saddle tomorrow for a 11-race meeting at Kranji in Singapore.

Nunes, who is a three-time Singapore champion jockey (2014 to 2016), looks a hot favourite to claim his fourth title after his blistering return to Kranji in November last year, where he struck eight wins in one month at a healthy 25% win strike rate.

This week Nunes boasts a strong book of rides with multiple winning chances. The Brazilian master will be keen to stamp his authority early and is the jockey to follow in season 2022.

Trainer Michael Clements will be looking to get on the board after a third placing from five runners on opening day and can be confident with four-year-old SOUTH OF THE RIVER in the $20,000 Open Maiden race over 1000m on the Polytrack.

SOUTH OF THE RIVER had trialled well prior to his debut 55 days ago, so it was no surprise to see him meet heavy market support on that occasion. Despite failing to score, there was merit to his ninth-place finish as it was a quality 1200m Novice race on turf run at very fast splits and he was on pace throughout, so was entitled to weaken in the straight.

The form has stood up with seventh place-getter KING ARTHUR, who endured a similar trip, subsequently winning a double in Class 4 on the Polytrack.

SOUTH OF THE RIVER has since turned in a big 11.70-length trial win while clocking the second fastest winning time of all the heats that day, and switching to the alternative racing surface this week looks a big plus as well as dropping into Open Maiden company

TIPS 6 ROCKET RYANE 1 GRANDPA MICK MAC 12 LIM'S PRIDE 2 HAPPY FRIDAY
PREVIEW 1st Pick: ROCKET RYANE (6) Trialled up in good order before the new year and looks to be on song for a nice return. Should settle just off the leaders and be in a nice position to get a good crack at them late. 2nd Pick: GRANDPA MICK MAC (1) Form in his final start of 2021 holds up running behind First Chief who won a Class 4 last weekend. If he can settle off a hot speed, look for him to be motoring home late. 3rd Pick: LIM'S PRIDE (12) Coming off a trial win as well which was visually appealing to the eye. They didn't do anything superb on the clock but he wasn't asked for a full effort. Could be something there in the locker for his first start in 2022. 4th Pick: HAPPY FRIDAY (2) Nice second placing behind Season to wrap up 2021. No trials during the break, but have to respect his last race performance.

BETTING: 7-2 DANCING LIGHT; 4-1 DECEPTION; 5-1 DANCING LIGHT; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
TIPS 7 DANCING LIGHT 2 BIG GREEN HAT 5 ANGEL BABY 1 DABBLE
PREVIEW 1st Pick: DANCING LIGHT (7) Fourth at the second of his two trials but only just over 2 lengths off debut winner Atilla. If anything, he was pinching some ground off Atilla late. Keep an eye on him. 2nd Pick: BIG GREEN HAT (2) Among the better exposed on racing experience, and with more placings to boot. May find this a touch short but if the pace is genuine, he will run on. 3rd Pick: ANGEL BABY (5) After a first quiet trial, was a lot more switched on at his second. Led the field into the straight but allowed others to pass late to finish third less than a length off the winner Dancing Tycoon. Does have some ability and one to watch for the future. 4th Pick: DABBLE (1) Shows more pace on Polytrack. Raced fiercely with blinkers on last time. Blinkers off this time. Improved run expected.

TIPS 3 CARIBBEAN LADY 8 WIND RHAPSODY 1 SUN POWER 5 SOUND THE SIREN
PREVIEW 1st Pick: CARIBBEAN LADY (3) Gets to her favourite distance of a mile where she holds four career victories. Stable are always dangerous in these sorts of races. 2nd Pick: WIND RHAPSODY (8) Caught the eye running on strongly last start on the turf. Before that he won twice in a row on this surface and looks a big threat here. 3rd Pick: SUN POWER (1) Hasn't been as explosive as his form from Australia predicted since he arrived. He now meets his easiest assignment and that can only be a positive for him. 4th Pick: SOUND THE SIREN (5) Changed stables since his last start. Was a winner over this trip and class in July last year and this isn't any harder than that day.

BETTING: 7-10 SOUTH OF THE RIVER; 2-1 GOLD CUT; 13-2 FABU; 12-1 AND UPWARDS OTHERS.
TIPS 8 SOUTH OF THE RIVER 7 GOLD CUT 1 FABU 4 TESORO PIRATA
PREVIEW 1st Pick: SOUTH OF THE RIVER (8) Hard to get past after he trounced his rivals in a barrier trial on December 28. Winkers replaced with blinkers. If he brings that trial form here, he'll give some sight in the straight. 2nd Pick: GOLD CUT (7) Looked home on debut but was run down late. Will strip filler for this. Biggest threat to the selection. 3rd Pick: FABU (1) Former Godolphin who showed potential with two thirds at his first two starts in Bendigo and Sandown, but has not quite cut the mustard thereafter. Bolted up at his first barrier trial. Lovely gate. Won't surprise if he makes presence felt at the business end. 4th Pick: TESORO PIRATA (4) Struck on nicely at last couple of runs. Quiet trial last Thursday. Place claims.

BETTING: 15-10 BRIGHT SUN; 11-2 OL MATE BUZZER; 13-2 WEDNESDAY; 17-2 MY HORSE; 9-1 LIM'S SHOT
TIPS 6 BRIGHT SUN 7 WEDNESDAY 2 LIM'S SHOT 1 SUN STEP
PREVIEW 1st Pick: BRIGHT SUN (6) Still a maiden but her run last weekend had plenty of merit. Despite the six-day back-up, we could see a repeat performance again from her here. 2nd Pick: WEDNESDAY (7) Consistently around the mark without winning. Have to respect this runner in a race that lacks quite a bit of depth. Major player. 3rd Pick: LIM'S SHOT (2) Another on the quick back-up from Sunday. 1.8 lengths off Country Boss in what was a fast race. Could figure here in the finish if we see a run like that again. 4th Pick: SUN STEP (1) Returns from a bigger let-up than most of these having last run in early August. Despite a few duck eggs of late, 1000m on the Polytrack is where we have seen this horse do his best work, so happy to respect at each-way odds as a top-four hope.

TIPS 2 SUPER ATAS 1 GREAT EXPECTATION 4 BLACK TAIPAN 5 HAPPY HEART
PREVIEW 1st Pick: SUPER ATAS (2) Knocking on the door. Runner-up at last two starts. Switch to Polytrack shouldn't faze him as he has a third in two runs on the all-weather. 2nd Pick: GREAT EXPECTATION (1) A bit of a one-batter but he has been thereabouts of late. Handicap against him as he gives weight all round. Still worth including in calculations. 3rd Pick: BLACK TAIPAN (4) Ignore last run when crowded after start. Didn't finish far behind at previous starts. Outsider. 4th Pick: HAPPY HEART (5) Form nothing to write home about but seems to go slightly better over Polytrack. Can inject some value to the exotics.

TIPS 4 HOTSHOTS SLAM 6 HARRY DREAM 2 GOOD LUCK CHARM 5 MORTAL ENGINE
PREVIEW 1st Pick: HOTSHOTS SLAM (4) Was far too good when winning last start at his ideal course and distance. Trialled strongly since then and looks to have trained on nicely. 2nd Pick: HARRY DREAM (6) Lightly-raced mare who has won two from three starts. Jumps up in class here but a bit to like about the way she finishes her races. 3rd Pick: GOOD LUCK CHARM (2) Consistent galloper in this grade running behind some classy horses in his last few. Should settle back and finish off strong. 4th Pick: MORTAL ENGINE (5) Was disappointing when a short-priced favourite last start. We know he has some ability and after a nice trial during the break, willing to give another look.

TIPS 11 ATLANTEAN 4 AMORE AMORE 5 DIAMOND RING 6 LIM'S UNIQUE
PREVIEW 1st Pick: ATLANTEAN (11) Another horse with First Chief form and a solid pre-new year trial performance. Expecting him to settle off the speed, running on and figuring in the finish. 2nd Pick: AMORE AMORE (4) Ran second in a trial just before Christmas behind Chivalric Knight and to both the eye and on the clock. It was a great run. Consider him a major player here. 3rd Pick: DIAMOND RING (5) Trial on December 21 suggests that Diamond Ring is in good order and ready for his first start this year. Another who should settle midfield and be running on late. 4th Pick: LIM'S UNIQUE (6) Trials have been quiet leading up to this weekend however, runs towards the end of the year suggest that a top-four finish wouldn't be a surprise here.

TIPS 1 FLAK JACKET 6 WAWASAN 2 LIM'S FORCE 10 GOLDEN DASH
PREVIEW 1st Pick: FLAK JACKET (1) The old boy is bound to break through in Class 5 soon enough and this race looks right up his alley. Wawasan will keep the pace genuine and he should be chiming in late in the race. 2nd Pick: WAWASAN (6) Trial was good leading up to this start. Horse looks in good order, expecting him to lead. Hopefully he can get a couple of cheap sectionals and give a kick at the turn. 3rd Pick: LIM'S FORCE (2) Given quiet trial out the back to blow out the cobwebs.

TIPS 5 SMITH 3 BEAT THE BREEZE 2 INDEPENDENCE
PREVIEW It is hard to look past the thriving SMITH in this contest, after the gelding destroyed his rivals at this track on his latest start, his second successive win over course and distance. An 8lb higher mark doesn't look enough to stop his progression and he can prove too good for Beat The Breeze, who ran well despite a wide trip at Wolverhampton last time. Independence didn't get the rub of the green on his latest Flat outing at Kempton and is also worth considering.

TIPS 1 PORFIN 10 BOY GEORGE 6 WELL PREPARED
PREVIEW Plenty put forward solid cases in this event and the in-form Porfin looks set for another bold showing, having been transformed since switching to this yard. However, the four-year-old has to prove himself at this trip and he may struggle to hold off BOY GEORGE, who ran well when second behind a subsequent dual winner at Wolverhampton on his latest start. Well Prepared was inconvenienced by a wide draw at this track last time and can also figure.

TIPS 7 STORM ASSET 6 SURREY TERRITORIES 5 JOANIE'S GIRL
PREVIEW It might be worth chancing JOANIE'S GIRL in this three-year-old event, after the daughter of Pearl Secret shaped with distinct promise at Kempton on her latest start. An improved performance may be forthcoming on her handicap debut and she can get the better of Storm Asset, who bumped into a well-handicapped rival at Newcastle last time and is respected in first-time cheekpieces. Surrey Territories and Deadly Weapon are others to consider.

TIPS 1 TONE THE BARONE 3 MARNIE JAMES 5 STRONG POWER
PREVIEW TONE THE BARONE seemed to have plenty in hand when coming with a late surge to score at Wolverhampton last month on his return from a short break. The six-year-old gelding seems to have his best form for the all-weather and he can defy a 6lb rise now switching to the Polytrack. Strong Power is turned out quickly after his win over this C&D on Monday but he will find this tougher from out of the handicap, while Ornate and Marnie James also warrant respect.

TIPS 5 AZAHEER 8 NEANDRA 6 CARYATID
PREVIEW A case can be made for several of these but preference is given to NEANDRA, who was not disgraced when finishing third on her racecourse debut at Chelmsford last month. The daughter of Jukebox Jury was slowly into stride on that occasion and she can build on that experience to lose her maiden tag in this contest. Azaher seemed to react well to the first-time cheekpieces when finishing second at this course and she is likely to be in the mix with the headgear retained, while Caryatid and Mhajim complete the shortlist.

TIPS 6 NO FLIES ON ME 9 MARIE PARADIS 4 COMPASS POINT
PREVIEW NO FLIES ON ME was last seen in winning action over C&D in August, when appearing to improve for a step up in trip, and a 3lb rise may underestimate the four-year-old's true ability. Marie Paradis finished third on her latest outing at Chelmsford last month and a repeat of that performance can see her in the reckoning, while Compass Point has been gelded during his time off and must be considered.

TIPS 8 DEVIZES 5 MORANI KALI 7 GOONER BOY
PREVIEW MORANI KALI benefited from the application of cheekpieces when scoring at Kempton on his penultimate outing, before running with credit when fourth at Southwell last month. The booking of Tom Marquand is a notable one and the four-year-old is taken to gain a second career success. Gooner Boy is likely to benefit from stepping back up in distance and first-time blinkers, so he is respected along with Devizes, who didn't get the rub of the green when fourth over C&D last time.
